

Club Constitution

1. Name

1.1. The name of the Club is the MARLIN OWNERS CLUB.

2. Objectives

2.1. To promote and encourage the building, ownership and enjoyment of kit cars based upon the designs originated by Marlin Engineering, Plymouth and its subsequent derivative companies.

2.2. To encourage the improvement of the standard of kit car construction by providing facilities for the exchange of news and technical information between the Members and between the Club and those companies as described in 2.1 above.

2.3. To represent and safeguard the interests of the Members at kit car events and at other venues, committee meetings, etc. as appropriate.

3. Management

3.1. Management of the Club shall be vested in a Committee to be elected at the Annual General Meeting convened in accordance with this Constitution.

3.2. The Committee shall comprise of:

- The Chairman
- The Vice-Chairman
- The Honorary Membership Secretary
- The Honorary Treasurer
- The Magazine Editor
- Three Ordinary Members

3.3. The Committee shall meet at intervals of not greater than six months, one meeting being timed to administer the calling of the AGM. Five Members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. The Chairman of the meeting shall use his vote only as a casting vote in the event of an equality of votes

3.4. A resolution in writing and signed by all of the Officers of the Committee shall be deemed to be as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Committee.

3.5. The Committee shall implement the Objectives of the Club and be responsible to the Members for the general administration in accordance with the Constitution and also for its finances and shall make such bye-laws and regulations as it thinks fit for these purposes. It shall have the power to enter into negotiations and agreements with any authority or party for the benefit of the Members, to appoint sub-committees and to co-opt Members to the Committee. A minute book, proper books of accounts and other records appropriate to the due discharge of their duties and powers herein shall be maintained by the Committee.

3.6. For the guidance of the Committee the principal duties of each Officer are outlined in Appendix I to the Constitution, together with the additional duties which may be undertaken or delegated as appropriate.

3.7. In the discharge of their Club duties, the Officers of the Club shall act as the agents or servants of the Club and shall be indemnified by the Club against any personal liability.

4. Elections

4.1. The Committee shall be elected at the AGM, for a maximum of two years rotating annually, the Chairman and Secretary retiring on even numbered years and the other six Members of the Committee retiring on odd numbered years, the retiring Members of the Committee being eligible for re-election.

4.2. The candidates for election shall be those retiring Officers who offer themselves for re-election together with any nominations by the Members. Nominations may be made at the AGM or by post to be received by the Chairman not less than seven days prior to the AGM. All candidates must be proposed and seconded by other Members of the Marlin Owners Club and in the case of postal nominations; the written agreement of the candidate must accompany the nominations.

4.3. Where there is a single nomination for a post, that candidate shall be deemed to be elected.

4.4. If a post becomes vacant during the year, the Committee shall have the option to co-opt a Member from the Club to the vacant post until the next AGM. This post will then be filled by election.

5. Annual General Meeting.

5.1. The AGM of the Club shall be held at intervals of approximately 12 months (not less than 10 months and not more than 14 months) at a time and place that shall give reasonable opportunity for a maximum number of Members to attend.

5.2. The time, date and place of the AGM shall be notified to all paid up Members at least one month before the AGM together with the agenda for the meeting.

5.3. Each fully paid up Member of the Club shall be entitled to one vote on each proposition.

6. Extraordinary General Meeting

6.1. An EGM may be summoned when the Committee deem it necessary or when required in writing by at least 10% of the Members at which only the specified business may be transacted. One calendar month's notice of an EGM shall be given.

7. Alterations to the Constitution

7.1 Alterations or additions to the Constitution may be made only at an AGM or EGM by the vote of not less than 75% of the voting Members present and provided that notice of the proposed change has been given in the notice calling the meeting.

8. Membership

8.1. Membership of the Club shall be open to persons who are owners of Marlin cars or have a bona fide interest in such cars, together with their spouse or partner who shall be named on the application form.

8.2. Subject to the payment of all subscriptions which may be due, every Member shall have the right to be present and to vote at all General Meetings and to participate in all proceedings of the Club in accordance with this Constitution.

8.3. Honorary Life Membership may be awarded by a majority vote at an AGM to any person who has rendered special or meritorious service to the Club. This class of Membership shall carry the same rights and obligations as ordinary Membership, this status will be at no cost to that Member.

8.4. The title of PRESIDENT of the Club is an honorary title which may be bestowed by a majority vote at a General Meeting upon a person who has special associations with the Club. This post shall not carry any executive or voting rights.

9. Termination of Membership

9.1. Any Member violating the Constitution of the Club or, in the opinion of the Committee, being guilty of misbehaviour or conduct prejudicial to the interests of the Club or its Members, may be expelled from the Club by the votes of not less than 75% of the Members at a meeting of the Committee specially called for the purpose of considering the circumstances and at which the Member has been invited to attend.

10. Subscriptions

10.1. Every member shall pay an annual subscription of such an amount as recommended by the Honorary Treasurer and agreed at the AGM, the first subscription being payable on enrolment and annually thereafter.

10.2. No member whose subscription remains unpaid 2 months after their renewal date shall be entitled to attend any meetings or otherwise participate in the proceedings of the club and will be removed from the Register of members by the Committee. This does not preclude the member from re-joining the club at a later date.

11. Finance

11.1. The Club shall be operated on a non-profit making basis.

11.2. For accounting purposes the financial year shall run from the 1st April each year to the 31st March the following year.

11.3. The Honorary Treasurer will be responsible for the accounts of the Club which will be audited annually and be presented to the AGM. The auditor shall be a competent person who may be a Member but shall not hold any office within the Club.

11.4. The Honorary Treasurer shall cause to be delivered to him/herself within 14 days without any deduction whatsoever, all monies received (or acknowledge of receipt by the Club's bank) by the Membership Secretary and any other Officers on behalf of the Club and shall record all such receipts.

11.5. The Honorary Treasurer shall cause to be paid into the Club's account at least once every 14 days all monies delivered or otherwise paid to him on behalf of the Club.

11.6. The Honorary Treasurer shall cause to be paid all accounts owing by the Club and agreed by the Committee and shall from time to time cause to be drawn from the Club's account money required for petty cash.

11.7. All cheques must be signed by the Honorary Treasurer and countersigned by one other Member of the Committee who shall not be related to the Honorary Treasurer.

11.8. The Committee shall be empowered to reimburse at their discretion any Office or Member for reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred solely and exclusively in the execution of duties on behalf of the Club. Such duties shall have the prior authority of the Committee and no Members shall profit from such payments.

12. Trade Connections

12.1. The Committee shall endeavour to maintain harmonious relationships with those companies as described in 2.1 and any other commercial organisations which may be beneficial to the Club but shall ensure that such organisations have no authority or control over the Club's affairs.

12.2. The Committee will ensure that the use by the Club of any trade mark, badge or logo has the prior agreement of the owner of the mark

13. Data Protection Act

13.1. Membership details kept on computer shall be used for membership purposes and shall not be disclosed to any outside bodies without the prior permission of the person/persons concerned.

13.2 When a member terminates their membership either by request or non-payment, their details will be removed from the data base as soon as possible and within a maximum of 2 months.

14. Dissolution

14.1. A motion to dissolve the Club may be made only at an EGM summoned exclusively for that purpose. That motion will be deemed carried if 75% or more of the Members present at that EGM vote in favour of that motion.

14.2. If carried, any surplus of funds or assets shall be disposed of in connection with the promotion of a registered charity to be agreed by the Members present at the EGM. No Members shall benefit from such dissolution by virtue of his/her membership.
